

GREEK AND ROMAN MYTHOLOGY COURSE OUTLINE (1 SEMESTER)

Introduction: One of the most frequently-asked questions is “How do you set up a mythology course?” This is a detailed outline of how I run my semester-long Greek and Roman mythology course. All the materials that I use in my own class are available on Mythologyteacher.com or appear in the Reaching Olympus textbook series.

Allotted Time: Numbers appearing to the left of assignment titles indicate the days of each unit. The entire semester consists of 79 planned days of instruction.

Resources: For a full list of resources used in this outline, see the list at the end of the document. Script-stories (Reader’s Theater plays) listed here come from the Reaching Olympus series, available for purchase at <http://store.mythologyteacher.com>. Note that Reaching Olympus: Heroes, Beasts, and Monsters is alternately titled Reaching Olympus: The Greek Myths, Vol. I.

Using Script-Stories in the Classroom: Each volume within the Reaching Olympus series contains a section that lists best practices for using script-stories (Reader’s Theater) in the classroom.

Anticipatory Set: Each script-story in the Reaching Olympus series includes a series of anticipatory questions to get students engaged in the content of the story.

Assessment: Each script-story in the Reaching Olympus series contains five recall questions that can be used as a post-script-story quiz.

Unit Exams and Quizzes: This outline recommends conducting formative assessments or quizzes throughout the unit and days for summative assessments at the conclusion of each unit. These assessments are not included with this outline. Teachers can create their own, or there are several available for purchase at the mythologyteacher.com store.
