

MYTHIC CREATURES OF ANCIENT RUSSIA

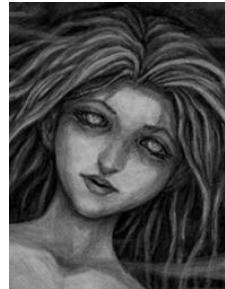

DOMOVOY
Patron Spirit of the Home,
Guards the Doorways
of the House,
Don't Make Them Angry,
Or They Will Cause
Household Trouble

LESHII
Woodland Spirit Who Can Be as Tall as a Tree or the Size of a Blade of Grass, Lured Peasants
Into the Woods and Made Them Plant-like

BABA YAGA
A Famous Witch Who Rode in a Flying Mortar
and Pestle,
Lived a Mythical Moving
Hut Supported on Two Live Chicken Legs

RUSALKA
Female Ghost of Young
Maidens Who Had Died
Near or in a Lake,
Tried to Lure Men into the Water and Drag Them
Down to Their Deaths

ALKONOST
The Bird of Paradise,
Head of a Woman,
Lay Eggs That Calm the Sea For a Week Then Bring
A Storm, Those Who Hear her Voice Forget Themselves

FIREBIRD
A Legendary Beast
That Had Glowing,
Fiery Feathers,
Capturing One is Usually the Task of Young Heroes

LIKHO
The Embodiment of Misfortune, Usually Shown as a One-Eyed
Hag Dressed n Black,
If You Are Tricked By This Creature, It Will Cling
To Your Back until You
Drown Yourself in a Fit of Madness

VODYANOY
Male Water Spirit,
Pulled Unwary
Travelers Down to
a Watery Grave,
Lives in a House
Made from Sunken
Boats,
Husband of Rusalka